

Faces

Watching Sunday school pupil Willy making faces at the kids around him, teacher Miss Betsy stopped the lesson and said, “Willy, when I was your age, I was told that if I made ugly faces, my face would freeze that way.”

Willy looked up and replied innocently, “Well, Miss Betsy, you can’t say you weren’t warned.”

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Prayer for Peace)

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

Eucharist28 Prayer

*Lord Jesus Christ, we thank You for the gift of Your real presence in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.
Grant us the grace to receive You reverently, worship You truly and serve You with hearts renewed.
By the power of the Holy Spirit strengthen us, so that as You gave Yourself to the Father and to us, we too may offer our lives to God and to others.
Inspire and help us to serve You in those who are in need, especially the defenceless and homeless, the lonely and lost.
Unite us with Your sacrifice of the Mass, so that we may truly become what we have received, the Body of Christ. Amen.*

Prayer for Ukraine

*O Lord our God, look down with mercy on the Ukrainian people. Protect and save them from the unjust aggressors who seek to subdue them. Grant them steadfast trust in your mercy and protection.
O Mother of God, who gave them your miraculous icon at Zarvanytsia, intercede for the Ukrainian people, who run to the shelter of your mercy in their times of need.
O Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on them. Give them strength and courage to defend what is good, right and holy. Keep them safe from harm and provide for all their needs, both temporal and spiritual. Amen*

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A 8 February 2026

Entrance Antiphon Psalm 94:6-7 O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

First Reading Isaiah 58:7-10
A reading from the prophet Isaiah Your light will shine like the dawn.
Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, and shelter the homeless poor, clothe the man you see to be naked and turn not from your own kin. Then will your light shine like the dawn and your wound be quickly healed over. Your integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you. Cry, and the Lord will answer; call, and he will say, ‘I am here.’ If you do away with the yoke, the clenched fist, the wicked word, if you give your bread to the hungry, and relief to the oppressed, your light will rise in the darkness, and your shadows become like noon.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 111:4-9. R. v.4
R/ A light rises in the darkness for the upright.
1.He is a light in the darkness for the upright: he is generous, merciful and just. The good man takes pity and lends, he conducts his affairs with honour. R/ 2.The just man will never waver: he will be remembered for ever. He has no fear of evil news; with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord. R/ 3.With a steadfast heart he will not fear; open-handed, he gives to the poor; his justice stands firm for ever.
His head will be raised in glory. R/

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 2:1-5
A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
I came to you to proclaim Christ crucified.
When I came to you, brothers, it was not with any show of oratory or philosophy, but simply to tell you what God had guaranteed. During my stay with you, the only knowledge I claimed to have was about Jesus, and only about him as the crucified Christ. Far from relying on any power of my own, I came among you in great ‘fear and trembling’ and in my speeches and the sermons that I gave, there were none of the arguments that belong to philosophy; only a demonstration of the power of the Spirit. And I did this so that your faith should not depend on human philosophy but on the power of God.

Gospel Acclamation John 8:12
Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the light of the world, says the Lord; the man who follows me will have the light of life.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 5:13-16
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
You are the light of the world.
Jesus said to his disciples: ‘You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.
‘You are the light of the world. A city built on a hilltop cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.’

Communion Antiphon Matthew 5:5-6 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be consoled. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall have their fill.
